Counsel for Appellee

Appellee Highland¹ respectfully supplements its motion to dismiss this appeal as constitutionally moot [Dkt. No. 33] (the "Motion") to advise the Court of a critical development that occurred today in the bankruptcy court directly affecting Appellant NexPoint's lack of standing.

NexPoint acquired one disputed general unsecured claim against the Highland estate, the Covitz Claim, shortly before the Motion was filed. Appellee argued in the Motion that the Covitz Claim cannot confer standing on NexPoint for at least two reasons. Earlier today, the bankruptcy court entered an order disallowing the Covitz Claim.² As a result, neither NexPoint, nor either of the other two Appellants, possesses any general unsecured claim against Highland's bankruptcy estate.

No Appellant has a sufficient legal interest to maintain this appeal, which is moot, and should be dismissed for the reasons stated in the Motion.

¹ All capitalized terms not defined in this supplement retain the meanings given to them in the Motion.

² Bankruptcy Docket No. 3180.
